Scripture Song – Dem Bones

Although it's often mistaken for a folksong, this popular spiritual was written by African-American author and composer, James Weldon Johnson. The song has no exact date of composition, however, it was first recorded by the Famous Myers Jubilee Singers in 1928 and some versions of this song also give writing credit to the author's brother J. Rosomond Johnson. Since that time, it has been rerecorded and made popular by a wildly diverse group of musicians and performers including Rosemary Clooney, Tennessee Ernie Ford, The Mills Brothers and The Kingsmen.

Although the song has spooky overtones, the lyrics are taken from the Biblical Book of Ezekiel (Ezekiel 37:1-14) where the Prophet Ezekiel visits the Valley of Dry Bones and prophesies that the dead will one day rise again at the command of the Lord. Although there are quite a few variations of the song, the format is pretty much the same. The song starts with an introductory verse, tells the sequence of bones (from the toe upward) and almost always ends with the command: "Now hear the word of the Lord."

Welcome!

We are so glad that you have joined us this morning. For those new or returning to the church, welcome home. God calls us all to Himself, and it's our conviction – we're here to prove it – that spiritually, Christianity is most fully lived out in the congregation of God's people. You figured out we're not all together, but we're working on this journey of faith and we are glad you have come along with us for the ride.

Please worship with us on Sunday mornings in person, livestream on our website which is www.faithumcjax.org (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zCyVuhJrHEw>) or on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/faithumcjax>
